Dear Fellow New Yorker,

I would like to take the opportunity to provide you with important information about funding opportunities for senior services in New York State and across the country. Our government, on both the state and federal level, provides funding for competitive grants that help provide our senior citizens with a productive, healthy and safe retirement.

In particular, I am working hard to provide you with as much information as possible to protect seniors from financial fraud and provide financial resources to organizations that benefit seniors. My office is committed to assisting seniors and the agencies that provide helpful services to their community.

This guide will provide you with important deadlines, contact information, and a brief overview of each grant program. More detailed information for these programs can be found by visiting the internet links provided. In addition, I have provided contact phone numbers and emails.

In addition to this guidebook, my Senate website (www.Gillibrand.senate.gov) is continually updated with critical information about various funding opportunities that are available to you, how to access them, and where to apply. You can also request hard copies of this guidebook, and other thematic funding guidebooks, by filling out the order form at the end of this guidebook and mailing it back to my New York City office or by emailing an electronic copy to grants@gillibrand.senate.gov. Furthermore, if you need assistance from a federal agency or with an immigration case, please refer to the casework form at the end of this document or visit http://gillibrand.senate.gov/services/casework/form/. As you move forward with any grant opportunities, please contact Andrew Usyk, my Grants Director, for letters of support, when applicable. You can reach him in my Washington, D.C. Office at Grants@Gillibrand.Senate.gov, or (202)-224-4451.

Administration on Aging

The Administration on Aging (AoA) is the Federal agency responsible for advancing the concerns and interests of older people and their caregivers. AoA works with and through the Aging Services Network to promote the development of a comprehensive and coordinated system of home and community-based long-term care that is responsive to the needs and preferences of older people and their family caregivers. AoA is part of the Department of Health and Human Services and is headed by the Assistant Secretary for Aging, who reports directly to the Secretary.

The mission of AoA is to develop a comprehensive, coordinated and cost-effective system of home and community-based services that helps elderly individuals maintain their health and independence in their homes and communities.

1) Health Care Fraud Prevention Program Expansion and SMP Capacity Building Grants

- There is a need to expand the capacity of SMP projects in those areas to reach larger numbers of Medicare beneficiaries, their caregivers and family members with the SMP message of fraud prevention.

Eligibility:
- States eligible for this funding opportunity are required to develop innovative, new and targeted strategies for expanding awareness of health care fraud and enhancing the role of the SMP as a working partner in HEAT Strike Force operations.

Additional Information:
- Through this program are three priority areas that offer funding:

Additional Information:
- This grant opportunity will support State projects to strengthen, develop and/or implement a comprehensive set of standards they can use to guide, monitor and continually improve the delivery of Options Counseling and Assistance within the context of their ADRC systems.

Additional Information:

Additional Information:
- This grant opportunity is designed to promote the further development and enhancement of ADRC participation in evidence-based care transition models. This may include:
  - Increasing the capacity of ADRCs’ current involvement in evidence-based care transition initiatives by expanding the reach of the ADRC efforts (e.g., adding additional staff, expanding an intervention to serve new populations, or expanding to additional sites).
  - Strengthening the extent to which existing transitions programs leverage the assets of the ADRCs (e.g., to streamline access to public benefits, link individuals with community-based services and supports, and counsel individuals and their families on service options) among programs where ADRCs have a limited role currently.
  - Informing AoA/CMS, other Federal agencies and Congress on national policy related to care transitions, hospital discharge planning, person-centered planning, and mechanisms to reduce unnecessary hospital re-admissions.

Additional Information:

Accordingly, Center activities will incorporate the latest technology to generate and disseminate knowledge in appropriately packaged forms that can assist women, especially low-income women, women of color, and women with limited English-speaking proficiency, to build their capacity to plan for, and to exercise, the most prudent options for their economic security in later life.
Additional Information:

United States Department of Transportation

Federal Transit Administration

The Federal Highway Administration is a major agency of the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT). As a cabinet-level organization of the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government, the DOT is led by a presidential appointee—the Secretary of Transportation. The top-level official at FHWA is the Administrator, who reports directly to the Secretary of Transportation. FHWA is headquartered in Washington, DC, with field offices in every State, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

FHWA is charged with the broad responsibility of ensuring that America’s roads and highways continue to be the safest and most technologically up-to-date. Although State, local, and tribal governments own most of the Nation’s highways, FHWA provides financial and technical support to them for constructing, improving, and preserving America’s highway system. Their annual budget of more than $30 billion is funded by fuel and motor vehicle excise taxes. The budget is primarily divided between two programs: Federal-aid funding to State and local governments; and Federal Lands Highways funding for national parks, national forests, Indian lands, and other land under Federal stewardship.

1) Capital Assistance Program for Elderly Persons and Persons with Disabilities

- The program has been created to provide financial assistance in meeting the transportation needs of elderly persons and persons with disabilities where public transportation services are unavailable, insufficient or inappropriate. The Section 5310 program is designed to supplement FTA’s other capital assistance programs by funding transportation projects for elderly persons and persons with disabilities in all areas - urbanized, small urban, and rural.

Additional Information:

- Section 5310 funding may be used for eligible capital expenses needed to provide efficient and coordinated specialized transportation service for elderly persons and persons with disabilities.
- Projects must provide for the maximum feasible coordination of transportation services assisted under this section with transportation assisted by other Federal sources and must provide for the maximum feasible participation of private-for-profit operators.
Eligibility:
- States may apply for FTA grants. Eligible sub-recipients include private nonprofit organizations, public bodies approved by the State to coordinate services for elderly persons and persons with disabilities and public bodies which certify to the governor that no nonprofit corporations or associations are readily available in an area to provide the service.
- Eligible beneficiaries will be seniors with disabilities.

New York State Office of Aging

The New York State Office for the Aging was created by Executive Order of the Governor in 1961 and was one of the first State Units on Aging in the Nation. In 1965 the Office was made an independent agency in the Executive Department and became the central State agency to plan and coordinate programs and services for the aging at all levels in both the public and private sectors. Throughout its 40-year history, the Office for the Aging has been in the forefront of special initiatives for older people, and many of the concepts and programs which began in New York have been adopted nationally.

The New York State Office for the Aging administers various Titles under the Federal Older Americans Act of 1965 as amended, and a variety of State-funded programs which serve the elderly. In these programs preference is given to elderly people with the greatest economic or social need, with special emphasis on meeting the needs of low income minority elderly.

1) Health Insurance Information, Counseling and Assistance Program (HIICAP)

- Under the HIICAP program, NYSOFA has a funding opportunity for a contractor to provide training services and training materials to meet the needs of Area Agencies on Aging, HIICAP Coordinators and Counselors. This is accomplished by providing up-to-date, accurate information on Medicare, including the new Medicare prescription drug benefit (Medicare Part D), health insurance related topics and Medicare fraud and abuse.

Additional Information:
- The entity that is currently providing this service has been deemed a single source provider by the Office of the State Comptroller.

Eligibility:
- Contractors able to provide training services and training materials to meet the needs of Area Agencies on Aging are eligible to apply.

The New York State Office of Real Property Tax Services (ORPTS), a division within the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, is responsible for overseeing the local administration of real property assessments. The division also establishes a multitude of rates and ratios that allow for the equitable apportionment of local non-income taxes and State Aid between and within municipalities throughout the State.

1) Senior Citizens’ Exemption Program

- New York State Real Property Tax Law, section 467, gives local governments and public school districts the option of granting a reduction on the amount of property taxes paid by qualifying senior citizens. This is accomplished by reducing the taxable value of residential property owned by seniors by 50%.

Additional Information:
- Localities have the further option of giving exemptions of less than 50% to seniors whose incomes are more than $29,000. Under this option, called the sliding-scale option, such owner can have a yearly income as high as $37,399.99 and get a 5% exemption in places that are using the maximum limit.
- Please check with your local assessor, city/town clerk, or school district to determine which local options, if any, are in effect.

Eligibility:
- To qualify, seniors generally must be 65 years of age or older and meet certain income limitations and other requirements. For the 50% exemption, the law allows each county, city, town, village, or school district to set the maximum income limit at any figure between $3,000 and $29,000.
