Recipient Name	Project Purpose	Project Location	Amount Requested ($000)
Fort Drum	In order for Fort Drum to meet the training requirements for the Next Generation Squad Weapon (NGSW) system, a new Army standard design Automated Record Fire (ARF) Range is required to be constructed. This requirement will be met by modifying an existing Range.	Jefferson County, NY NY	$23,000
Fort Drum	Fort Drum is a Regional Collective Training Center to roughly 25,000 soldiers each year, including during annual training exercises. As Fort Drum renovates other barracks, additional funding is needed to house transient units when they come to Fort Drum for training.	Jefferson County, NY NY	$55,000
Fort Drum	Fort Drum is located in Zone VII (Arctic weather), meaning that aircraft must be protected during inclement weather. The unit that occupies hangar 2072 is short 72% of the needed space. Adding additional space will improve aircraft maintenance and storage needs.	Jefferson County, NY NY	$81,000
Fort Drum	Construct a Physical Fitness Testing Facility Field House/Soldiers Performance Readiness Center (SPRC) Facilities in support of testing the Army Combat Fitness Test (ACFT) and developing physically fit soldiers.	Jefferson County, NY NY	$57,000
Lexington Avenue Armory	This project is critical to the State of New York/New York Army National Guard because the historic Readiness Center built in 1904 does not meet current Army readiness standards, lacking modern technologies to include data, communication, building security, and heating and air conditioning systems.	Manhattan, NY NY	$90,000
